

Region IV Champions!

You probably know these guys as 2008 Minnesota State Champions from our previous newsletter. Well, now they have earned themselves a new title. USAG Region IV Champions. What that means is that they are the best gymnasts at their levels and age groups within five states (Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota). Here is their 2008 Region IV record:

Alex Torp (left) - Level 5 (age 10 group) - All Around Champion, 1st on Pommel Horse, 2nd on Rings and High Bar, 3rd on Parallel Bars.

Leo Bruslavitsev (center) - Level 6 (12+ age group) - All Around Champion, 1st Place on High Bar, 2nd on Rings, 2nd on Floor, 3rd on Pommel Horse, Vault and Parallel Bars.

Yuriy Bruslavitsev (right) - Level 5 (age 9 group) - All Around 5th Place, 1st on Vault, 3rd on Rings, 7th on Floor and High Bar, 8th on Parallel Bars, 9th on Pommel Horse.

EGA Girls Optional Team

We would like to announce that Level 7 girls made it to 2008 Minnesota State Meet Championship with high qualifying scores. Congratulation Girls !!!

New USAG men's routines!

Every Olympic Year USAG changes Men's compulsory program routines. The change makes the following competitive season interesting as every athlete start fresh in a certain way. One of our coached is making a special trip to Battle Greek, Michigan to get new routines as early as possible. New routines training for EGA athletes is set to May 13th.

EGA Open House - May 31st.

Elite Gymnastics Academy is hosting an open house on May 31st. 12:00 pm - 3:00 pm.
